WHAT ARE WE OFFERING YOU?

- By choosing our program, you're investing in the safety and well-being of your workforce, fostering a sense of empowerment and belonging.
- Let's create a safer healthcare community together, where everyone can thrive.

WHAT ARE ANTICIPATED BENEFITS OF THE PROGRAM?

01

The trainees will gain the skills and knowledge to identify and recognize workplace violence, including different types of violence, such as physical violence, verbal abuse, and threats.

02

The trainees will learn to identify early warning signs of potential violence, improve their ability to identify escalating events, decrease the potential for violence through risk avoidance and de-escalation techniques, improve communication and conflict resolution skills, and foster safer and respectful work environments.

03

The training will build trainees' confidence to report workplace violence, guiding trainees on who to report to, such as supervisors, managers, human resources, and OSHA
